

Kathryn Davis

Rensselaer County

4-H Project Achievement Scholarship

Kathryn Davis – from Rensselaer County has just completed her first year of college at Cobleskill but she plans to transfer to Siena College in the Fall to obtain a degree in sociology with a minor in economics. . She stated in her application that she found her experiences of staying in the dormitory at State Fair prepared her well for dealing with some issues of dorm life at college. Kathryn was a delegate to the National 4-H Conference in 2006 which lead to expanded leadership involvement with STARR. Her great interest in animals led her to projects working with sheep, goats, poultry and covies. At Cobleskill she was involved with the Orange Key Society which is a selected group of men and women students who are committed to leadership service to the college community.
